La Leche League

La Leche League (pronounced la lay-chay) is an international charitable organisation founded to give information and encouragement, mainly through mother-to-mother support, to all women who want to breastfeed their babies.

La Leche League Leaders

La Leche League Leaders are mothers who have breastfed their own babies and are trained to provide breastfeeding help. As volunteers they provide information and support by telephone and email, and lead local support meetings for mothers.

La Leche League GB provides:

- A Breastfeeding Helpline (0845 120 2918).
- Online Helpforms (visit www.laleche.org.uk).
- Local support groups and meetings.
- Opportunities to share experiences with other breastfeeding mums.
- Local libraries of books and leaflets on breastfeeding and parenting.
- An online shop.
- Information and publications for health professionals.

Finding your nearest Leader and group

Visit our website www.laleche.org.uk to find details of your nearest Leader and Group, or call our Breastfeeding Helpline.

Breastfeeding Support

La Leche League can help you when you:

- Are expecting a baby and want to know more about how to breastfeed.
- Are already breastfeeding and want help with particular challenges.
- Need information on starting solids or weaning
- Want to meet other breastfeeding mums and share experiences.
- Want to read more about breastfeeding, birth and parenting.
- Are a health professional or breastfeeding supporter who wants to know more.

La Leche League Meetings

Local groups hold meetings for interested women and their babies. Informal discussions cover a wide range of breastfeeding related topics including:

- Why breastfeeding is good for mothers, babies and society.
- Preparation and expectations.
- Getting breastfeeding off to a good start.
- Overcoming or avoiding challenges and difficulties.
- Family life with a baby.
- Night-time parenting and infant sleep.
- Returning to work.
- Starting solids and weaning.

Groups may also offer toddler meetings, couples meetings, antenatal classes and café-style coffee mornings.
